This course is one of the 4 important Japanese language skills courses, especially in intermediate level speaking skills. This course aims to improve students' ability to speak Japanese according to the themes that have been determined in the textbook. The activities carried out by the students were practicing conversations equipped with several media, such as story pictures and CD audio. Narration is also given as an exercise in listening, pronouncing vocabulary, while paying attention to the use of Japanese vocabulary and grammar as well as Japanese expressions. Thus, students can communicate actively in Japanese both with friends on campus, Japanese friends, and native speakers in any situation. This course is held 14 times followed by Mid-Semester Examination and End-Semester Examination.
